November 2019

RAMPINI CARLO S.P.A. AND CATANOBUS – FABRICAÇÃO DE CARROÇARIAS, S.A.

Passignano sul Trasimeno, Italy and Vila Nova de Gaia, Portugal - Rampini, Italian leading Company in the European electric buses market, and CaetanoBus, a Portuguese manufacturer of electric and fuel cell city buses, announce the extension of their product portfolio thanks to the commercial agreement signed by the two Companies, which provides for the integration of the electric buses range.

This agreement represents a new significant step forward in the Companies' commercial repositioning strategy, as a confirmation of the intention to aim for the offer extension.

Rampini incorporates CaetanoBus' e.City Gold 10.7m and 12m in its product portfolio as E100 and E120 for Italian market. On the other hand, CaetanoBus also incorporates Rampini's E60 and E80 in its product portfolio as e.City Gold 6 and e.City Gold 8 for the Portuguese market.

Through the extension of their respective product portfolios, both companies expect to be in a better position to support cities in the transition to cleaner mobility solutions.

"The new zero-emissions buses E100 and E120, - has commented the General Manager, Fabio Magnoni - allow Rampini to provide an increasingly wide range of innovative and sustainable solutions in response to the growing environmental awareness that meets the goals of the decarbonization, decentralization and digitalization enshrined in the Paris Agreement on Climate Change. Electric mobility plays a crucial role in the transport landscape of the new millennium".

"With this partnership – according to CaetanoBus CEO, Jorge V. Pinto – CaetanoBus strengthens and expands its portfolio of electric mobility products, thus taking another step to create a shift towards cleaner and more sustainable transport solutions. We are confident that this will also increase competitiveness of electric vehicles in the European market, accelerating the change to zero emissions mobility. This collaboration is a further proof of how we can cooperate and work together to affect meaningful change for the benefit of the general public".

This agreement is only the beginning of a path marked by the achievement of common business goals and therefore of shared success and growth.
